Kilim - Oushak #22114

Description

Although we have attributed it Ushak, it might just a well be northwest Persian in origin. What is more important is the eye dazzling allover design of concentric saw tooth edged diamonds in primary colors. No side borders contain the vigorous pattern. The play of yellow-white-dark blue is uncommonly striking. This c. 1910 kilim rug is in top condition and it makes an equally attractive floor covering, furniture throw or wall hanging.
