

Antique Rug Studio

19th Century Caucasian Moghan Carpet

Description

The extreme southeastern Caucasian weaving area of Moghan specialized in long rugs with allover pattern repeats such as this striking yellow rug with a hexagon lattice enclosing eight point. The ivory border of hooked motives is in character on this c.1890 rug with excellent wool and dyes.

Stock ID:	#18768
General Rug Type:	Caucasian
Specific Rug Type:	Caucasian - Moghan
Circa:	1890
Color:	Yellow
Origin:	Russia
Material:	Wool
Weave:	Pile - Knotted
Shape:	Rectangle
Width:	3' 2" (96.52 cm)
Length:	8' 10" (269.24 cm)

