19th Century Turkish Ghiordes Oushak Carpet

Description

The eclecticism of Oushak weavers knows no bounds. The basic idea here is an elaboration of late 19th century east Caucasian designs as immediately evident in the eleven (!) patterned borders, including a main stripe with the wedgie shoe design. The red field displays a Chi-Chi originated all-over ornamentation with additional Persian floral elements. This circa 1890 western Turkish carpet is unlike the typical Oushak in its manifold borders and small-scale field pattern.
